Project | SEARCH

If you are looking for reliable, punctual, and dedicated team members who can get the job done and inspire other team members and customers alike, join us March 27th.

Southeast Nebraska students with disabilities aged 16 – 21 have been invited to learn and practice important skills like self-advocacy, dressing for success, and interview skills. Candidates will be available for same day interviews and students in their senior year will be available to begin work following graduation in May. There is no charge for businesses to participate.
